[jhnstpatric@frontier.com]. Total records = 321.

At stop sign in the town of Taylor turn right going north on State Rte 26 go about 1 mile, turn left onto Union Valley Road, drive about 4 miles, the cemetery will be on the right.

The Union Valley Cemetery was originally known as the Burying Ground. In 1834 Daniel Sexton deeded land to Alfred Brooks, Lyman Alden and Lyman Eldred to be held in trust for the Burying Ground Society. In 1890 and 1909 more land was added to the cemetery for a total footage of 248ft x181.6ft. The first documented burial was in 1826 and the last interment was in 2009.

The Union Valley Cemetery Association was incorporated on Feb 08, 1909 and operates under the rules and regulations of the NYS Division of Cemeteries. Current Secretary: 4613 Union Valley Rd. DeRuyter, NY 13052

The cemetery is in fair condition with the grounds mowed and trimmed when needed. There are a few stones in need of repair and put back on their foundations. Several trees have been removed because of wind damage and the stumps are still there.

I gathered this information from sexton records, gravestone reading, the town of Taylor vital records, Halbert genealogy, pension papers and obituaries. This file contains all known burials to Aug 2011.
